

Absolutely. Competition. Encourage it. It is bad enough it's been thrown away in the use of the "free", "public" airways of radio and TV. Everything must be done to help and encourage independent ISPs.

Bell companies operate an "essential facility", and should have to accommodate other ISP firms that wish to purchase access from them. This wholesale provisioning will stimulate competition and be of benefit to the consumers. To not do so would cripple the '96 Telecom Act. Chairman Powell: Please do not sell out to BIG BUSINESS, at the expense of competition and the small businesses of our country.
